Street signs in Cherchen / Qiemo
At each main intersection, four large blue sign give the name, in Chinese, Uyghur and English, of:
(1) the street one block further ahead,
(2) the street one block to the left, and
(3) the street one block to the right.

To find out the name of the street you are on, you have to go a block to the left or right and look at the street sign facing back in the direction you came.
To find out the name of the street you have reached, you have to go back a block and look at that street sign facing the direction you came.
